

Game: The Elder Scrolls V: Skyrim
Content: Atronach Forge Recipes
Key: ● = Sigil Stone required

The Atronach Forge is in The Midden at the College of Winterhold which can be reached via a trapdoor in the northern corner of the courtyard or a trapdoor at the base of the stairs in the Hall of Countenance.

Many recipes require a Sigil Stone. Having a Conjuration skill of 90 allows the Conjuration Ritual Spell quest from Phinis Gestor to be started, which results in you obtaining a Sigil Stone.

To work the forge, place the ingredients in the offering box, place the Sigil Stone on the pedestal if needed and then pull the lever. Saving is recommended before pulling the lever so you can load if you don't like the result.
